

UNITED STATES of AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

ORDER

MICHAEL F. DURANTE,

Defendant.

This matter comes before the Court on the motion to quash the subpoena issued February 21, 2012 by third party CVS Caremark (“CVS”). The motion will be granted in part and denied in part. The privacy concerns cited by CVS may be addressed by redacting the requested prescription information to remove identifying patient information: the name and address of each patient should be redacted. To this extent, the motion to quash will be granted in part. CVS must otherwise disclose the prescription information specified in the subpoena and, to this extent, the motion to quash will be denied.

IT IS on this 30th day of April, 2012,

ORDERED that CVS's motion to quash the subpoena issued February 21, 2012 (Docket Entry No. 232) is DENIED in part and GRANTED in part.

s/ Stanley R. Chesler
Stanley R. Chesler, U.S.D.J